WELCOME, VISITORS!

We are so glad you are here. If this is your first time with us, here's what to expect. We seek to worship according to the New Testament pattern. As a result, we sing without the accompaniment of mechanical musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). We have a weekly observance of the Lord's Supper (cf. Acts 20:7) which consists of unleavened bread and fruit of the vine (Matt. 26:26-29). This memorial is designed for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins to partake (Acts 2:38, 42). There will also be an offering collected from our members (1 Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to make a donation. You will also hear the preaching of a Bible-centered message (Acts 20:7) and men leading the congregation in prayer (1 Tim. 2:8). We think you will find our worship meaningful and refreshing as we strive to do it in spirit and in truth (John 4:24). We encourage you to observe carefully and stay a while afterwards so that we can get to know you better and answer any questions you may have.

Go Now

Webster's dictionary gives dozens of definitions for the word "go." Here are a few select ones: "to move on a course...to proceed without delay...to apply oneself...to maintain or perform a certain action...to come to be determined...to engage in." With those in mind, let's look at some the things followers of God should be going about doing (from verses that mention the word "go").

If we have an issue with a member of the church, we should "go and tell him his fault between you and him alone." (Matt. 18:15)

If we have the opportunity and ability to use our talents in God's church, we should, like the father requested of his sons in the parable, "go, work today in my vineyard." (Matt. 21:28)

If we have been blessed by the Lord in any way (and we have), we should "Go home to your friends, and tell them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how He has had compassion on you." (Mark 5:19)

If we believe the gospel message, we should, like the apostles, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." (Mark 16:15)

If we have been spiritually healed by the blood of Christ, we should follow the advice Jesus gave to the woman He healed and "go in peace" (Luke 8:48)

If we are a person of true compassion, we should "go and do likewise" emulating the actions of the Good Samaritan. (Luke 10:37)

If we have any talents for the Lord (and we do), like the apostles and many others in the New Testament, we should "go and bear fruit" in His name (John 15:16)

If we are truly serious about our Christianity, we should always be striving to "go on to perfection" (Heb. 6:1)

"Therefore let us go forth to Him" (Heb. 13:13)
