WELCOME, VISITORS!

We are so glad you are here. If this is your first time with us, here’s what to expect. We seek to worship according to the New Testament pattern. As a result, we sing without the accompaniment of mechanical musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). We have a weekly observe the Lord’s Supper (cf. Acts 20:7) which consists of unleavened bread and fruit of the vine (Matt. 26:26-29). This memorial is designed for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins to partake (Acts 2:38, 42). There will also be an offering collected from our members (1 Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to make a donation. Feel perfectly comfortable passing the collection plate down the row. You will also hear the preaching of a Bible-centered message (Acts 20:7) and men leading the congregation in prayer (1 Tim. 2:8). We think you will find our worship meaningful and refreshing as we strive to do it in spirit and in truth (John 4:24). We encourage you to observe carefully and stay a while afterwards so that we can get to know you better and answer any questions you may have.

A Mother’s Prayer

If I live in a house of spotless beauty with everything in its place, but have not love, I am a housekeeper not a homemaker. If I have time for waxing, polishing, and decorative achievements, but have not love, my children learn cleanliness not godliness. Love leaves the dust in search of a child’s laugh. Love smiles at the tiny fingerprints on a newly cleaned window. Love wipes away the tears before it wipes up the spilled milk. Love picks up the child before it picks up the toys. Love is present through the trials. Love reprimands, reproves, and is responsive. Love crawls with the baby, walk s with the toddler, runs with the child, then stands aside to let the youth walk into adulthood. Love is the key that opens salvation’s message to a child’s heart. Before I became a mother I took glory in my house of perfection. Now I glory in God’s perfection of my child. As a mother, there is much I must teach my child, but the greatest of all is love.

It Is Worth It!

They wiggle. They squirm. They sometimes have a tough time sitting still and being quiet...but that's ok! Having little kids in worship is one of the best things that can happen – for the church and the kids! Parents, please know that while you might have a tough time keeping them quiet and still in those first few years, if you keep at it, it will be worth it!

Parents are charged with bringing their children up in the way they should go (Prov. 22:6). Do you want your children to be in worship every week when they're older? You be there now. Do you want your children to enjoy worship when they're older? You enjoy it now. Do you want your children to refrain from complaining about worship when they're older? You refrain now.

The best habit we can instill within our children's hearts is (1) being in worship, (2) participating in worship and (3) enjoying worship. There is One who is worthy of our worship and worthy of every effort we make with our children. Help them to love God as much as you do!

Some Thoughts on Salvation

(from 2 John 8)

Look to yourselves, Salvation is an individual matter. You can't make it to heaven on another's coattails. It's up to you.

that we do not lose Salvation can be lost. Contrary to what many say, God's grace can be forfeited. We must be vigilant.

those things we worked for, Salvation takes ongoing effort. No, we don't earn it, but there are still things we must do. Stay active.

but that we may receive a full reward. Salvation is worth it. God's heavenly reward is complete and eternal. Don't quit – stay faithful!
